

As a New Jersey resident on the Do Not Call list I am adamantly opposed to any weakening of this important law. Prior to being on the list my phone was bombarded all hours of the day by telemarketers. Some of these companies even try to get around Caller ID by using unassuming names or none at all. This law has given me my phone back, please leave it as strong as it was intended to be.